Of Local and General Interest, Gathered at Home or Clipped from our Exchanges.

CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS.

A kidney or bladder trouble can always be cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure in time.

BRICK.—I will have plenty of brick for sale by next week.

PETER MORTON.

Mr. C. M. Ray of the Cove slaughtered a porker one day last week that netted 464 pounds.

Don't be imposed upon by taking substitutes offered for Foley's Honey and Tar.

Some Ingersol watches are packed as presents in Fort Bedford Coffee.

Quite a number of our town's people dined at the Washington House Thanksgiving Day.

Foley's Honey and Tar positively cures all throat and lung diseases. Refuse substitutes.

Mr. Loy Hollenshead and mother, Mrs. Thomas Hollenshead, of Licking Creek township, spent Thanksgiving Day in McConnellsburg.

Happy Boy! His mother bought a package of Fort Bedford Coffee and secured a knife worth 25c.

FOR SALE.—Pure bred Toulouse geese and Pekin ducks. Pairs or trios.

Mrs. M. E. MOSEBY, Wells Tannery, Pa.

We give a guarantee that there is nothing but absolutely pure drugs in Peerless Horse and Cattle Powder. Only ten cents for a full pound pack.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Litton of Thompson township spent last Friday night with their son Wilson in Ayr township, and were in town on Saturday.

Try a pack of Fort Bedford Coffee and get a handsome present in every pack.

J. Frank Daniels, Loy Hollenshead, and David and James Deshong—all prominent teachers in Bedford county this winter, spent Thanksgiving at their respective homes.

If we were to charge you 25c. a pack we could not make Peerless Horse and Cattle Powder better and we only charge you 10c. for a full pound.

The Mountain school in Licking Creek township was closed last week on account of scarlet fever, and will not be opened again until after the County Institute.

There is no other stock or condition powder on the market that has given such general satisfaction as Peerless Horse and Cattle Powder, and none so cheap, 10c. a pound pack.

Mr. Joseph E. Mellott of Belfast township, and Mr. Moses Hill of Conrad, Potter county, spent a day in town last week. Mr. Hill is spending a week or two with his Fulton county friends.

Did you get one of those lovely Plush Chatelaine Bags in your pack of Fort Bedford Coffee?

If the attendance at church up on the Union Thanksgiving service in this place last Thursday is any criterion from which to base a judgment, it is clear that the women of McConnellsburg have more to give thanks for than the men; for, of the large congregation, there was scarcely a dozen of the sterner sex.

Boy's Life Saved From Membranous Croup.

C. W. Lynch, a prominent citizen of Winchester, Ind., writes, "My little boy had a severe attack of membranous croup, and only got relief after taking Foley's Honey and Tar. He got relief after one dose and I feel that it saved the life of my boy." Refuse substitutes.

NEW GRENADA.

The Sunday school convention was a success.

Matthew Corbin of Altoona (once a resident of New Grenada) visited our town a few hours. He is crippled and has to use crutches.

Arthur Cunningham is enjoying a few days outing in Pittsburg. The High School is closed indefinitely. Why? "Bekase" the school house burned down last Friday night.

Harry Truax and family of Altoona, are visiting friends in the Valley.

Mrs. Evalyn McClain and daughter Maud are in Mt. Union, guests of Dr. Rowe McClain's family.

Charles Ramsey of Bellwood, visited Geo. Shafer's recently.

Mrs. Richard Alloway visited her sister Jennie Awkerman at Six Mile Run.

Mrs. Charles Alloway while assisting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cutchall to butcher, met with an accident which might have proven serious had it not been for presence of mind. Her clothes caught fire from the kettle, she made a dash for the spring which was near and plunged in, thus no doubt avoiding a fatality. Her hands were somewhat burned.

Mrs. M. F. McNeerling and daughter Edna visited the family of Jacob Crider's here on Thanksgiving.

Something, or some person, swiped a nice turkey out of Alloway's cellar last Friday night. It had been hung up to freeze, and was the property of the Pittsburg hunters. Shame on such conduct! The Pittsburg boys were a gentlemanly set, and why this meanness was done, we could not account for unless some one was turkey hungry.

It wasn't a flock of wild geese that went south on Tuesday; but instead, a quilting party at Henry Truax's, when about 20 of ye Valley ladies were quilting, feasting, and having a jolly old merry-go-round.

Married at the home of the bride's parents in Salsillo, on Wednesday evening 25th ult., by Rev. W. H. Dressler, Mr. Harvey J. Sharpe of New Grenada, and Miss Myrtle Hamilton. These are an estimable young couple, and intend moving at once to the Mary Grissinger house in our town. We congratulate you and welcome you to our village. May you enjoy a long and happy life.

GOOD FOR CHILDREN.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup, and lagrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Dr. Armstrong of Delta, Tex., prescribes it daily and says there is no better cough remedy made. Sold at Trout's drug store.
